

304/172 Fox Valley Road WAHROONGA NSW

Medical Use | Fitted Out & Ready to Occupy

Available now is the opportunity to occupy this medical suite in the brand-new SAN Clinic Parkway. Comprising of 60 brand new suites this facility has been custom built for specialist medical practitioners and healthcare support.

This complex offers a great design with three buildings interconnected by elevated walkways in the central atrium. Pedestrians have easy accessibility to the Sydney Adventist Hospital across the road. The Sydney Adventist Hospital is now the largest private hospital in NSW after adding capacity through its redevelopment (additional 200 beds & new Clinical Educational centre.)
